"Empower Change, Elect Hetvi: Your Favorite Female Leader!"

Hey there, I'm Hetvi Karanjawala, on a wild ride to grab my Master of Business Administration degree. Hold onto your hats because I'm diving headfirst into the race for Student Body President at MDXSU!

- Student Shenanigans:
 - Pumped to Jazz Up MDXSU Life: I'm all about boosting student vibes and creating a rad, supportive gang of pals through mega engagement.
 - As the queen bee of leadership back in my bachelor's days, I became the first female chairperson and whipped up epic events for 60+ students creating immense value and memories.
- Voice of the Students:
 - Roaring for Student Rights and Happiness: I'm a pro at fighting for you, our cool and quirky student crew.
 - I've led some epic campaigns, especially championing mental health and joy.
- Super Cool Grad Goodbyes:
 - Once I graduate (which will be epic), I plan to sprinkle some magic dust by introducing fun farewell traditions, so our time at MDXSU stays fresh in our memories.
- Heart of Gold: Paying It Forward:
 - I'm all about sharing the uni love, knowing how lucky we are to be here and aiming to open doors for others.
- Tackling Money Woes:
 - Cooking Up Budget-Friendly Eats: With tons of international pals around, I'm on a mission to make uni life more wallet-friendly with cheaper munchie plans. Plus, I'll spill the beans on grants and other uni perks.
- Big Shots on Campus:
 - Power to the Students: I'll be the voice of the cool kids, making sure our concerns are shouted from the rooftops in those fancy's high-level meetings.
 - Let's have regular catch ups on a special portal to chat about what matters most to you. Let's make some noise and get things done! I'm here for you:)
